The attack on the barracks by Fidel Castro's revolutionaries on July 26 was the starting point of his revolution. Fidel Castro would later name his revolution movement after the July 26th date of the attack. This afternoon you will have the opportunity to worship with Havana Central Church. Afterwards, explore the Fusterlandia art installation. Stop by the San Jose Craft Market and shop for unique handicraft items before returning to the ship for dinner. After dinner you may book an optional excursion to either the Buena Vista Social Club or the Tropicana Night Club.
